It has been a wonderful and blissful year. In obedience to God's will and in response to your Christian call you disposed yourselves to be used by God to accomplish marvelous deeds. There include fulfilling your diocesan duties especially supporting Bishop's appeal fund; helping the victims of floods in Louisiana, Thanksgiving food baskets for the poor and bringing joy and hope to some children in Nigeria. However, in the midst of these glorious moments of the year, we experienced the loss of some members of our parish, may their gentle souls rest in perfect peace. We pray and hope for idyllic and prosperous New Year. May God continue to shower his blessings on you and your families.

REV. FR. Anthony Oguadimma Onyekwe

ST. MARY'S NEWS

On behalf of St. Mary's Ladies' Guild, I would like to thank everyone who provided gifts for the residents at Good Samaritan. Everyone went above and beyond to assure that their lists were fulfilled. Your time and efforts guaranteed that the residents would have a very Merry Christmas. I would also like to acknowledge Jean Ebeling's work in getting the lists and preparing the stickers to assure that all gifts went to the right person. The Ebeling's and myself delivered the gifts on Thursday, December 16. Thank you so much!

Dr. Joyce King, President
