On Friday November 11, at 6pm we will honor our veterans with a Veterans Day Program; we will have a Guest Speaker, a flag ceremony and a reception. This is a program we have presented at St. Mary's for the past several years. Honoring the men and women who have served, and who are currently serving in our U.S. military. To those who have fought and paid the price, and those who may need to fight to protect our country and our way of life, we thank you

The flag of each of our military branches will be presented and posted in the front of church by a representative of that service. There will be a small reception after Mass. All military past and present are asked to bring a picture to the office on or before Nov. 11. Your pictures will be placed on a poster and displayed at the reception.

Holy Family and St. Mary's parishioners and guests are invited to attend and show support to our Veterans. If you have questions, please contact Jim Simpson at 731-693-6872.
