Scars and All

...love covers a multitude of sins - 1 Peter 4:8

Someone used to crack walnuts on my kitchen table. You can still see the grooves in the wood. A few years ago, I refinished the table. I sanded out water rings and scorch marks, but the scarring from the walnuts was too deep to remove without sanding the table away to nothing.

I suppose I could throw a pretty cloth over it to hide those marks, but the truth is, I don't mind them. It's an antique table. It's sturdy and beautiful and has history. I love how those scars tell part of its story.

I wonder if that's a little like how God sees us. He knows how imperfect we are. He knows our sins and our flaws. He knows the damage we've done, and the damage that's been done to us. God sees us for who we are, scars and all. He just loves us anyway.

If shame for our sins hasn't prompted us to change, maybe God's love for us in spite of them finally can.

Father, help me to be worthy of your love for me!
