The Other Side of Pain

"For this momentary light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen: for what is seen is transitory, but what is unseen is eternal." (2 Cor. 4:17-18)

Sometimes our afflictions don't feel momentary or light at all. Without considering the backdrop of eternity as our timetable, our suffering in the moment often feels permanent. Without remembering to exchange burdens with the Lord, the weight of our present pain can be crushing.

Many times I have been so preoccupied with the difficulty I see and feel, that I forget to look for what is unseen--God's power to transform.

I love the saying, "What you focus on expands." When we focus on our suffering, misery grows. When we focus on abundance, on faith, on God's ability to heal and redeem, hope grows. We can change our vision to include the parameters of what is unseen and remember that suffering always produces something valuable on the other side of pain. (By Kristin Armstrong, ©LivingFaith)

Dearest Parishioners of Holy Family and St. Mary's,

My heart is overflowing with love and appreciation for each of you. Your faithfulness to this ministry has touched me at my core; and your timing is impeccable! We were in need of $1000.00 to pay for the remainder of our insurance on the ultrasound machine. I wasn't sure how it was going to be paid until I received your contribution. The Lord always provides for us, exceedingly and abundantly more than we can imagine. He used you as a tool to bless this ministry. I'm beyond grateful and thankful to each and every one of you, my fellow friends, brothers and sisters in Christ.

Sincerely,
Shannon Dykstra
