A Penitential Psalm for Lent

(Miserere mei, Deus, secundum magnam misericordiam tuam.)

The God of gods, the LORD, has spoken and summoned the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting. From Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth. Our God comes and will not be silent! ...

Offer praise as your sacrifice to God; fulfill your vows to the Most High. Then call on me on the day of distress; I will rescue you, and you shall honor me." But to the wicked, God says: "Why do you recite my commandments and profess my covenant with your mouth? You hate discipline; you cast my words behind you! If you see a thief, you run with him; with adulterers you throw in your lot. You give your mouth free rein for evil; you yoke your tongue to deceit. You sit and speak against your brother, slandering your mother's son. When you do these things should I be silent?

Do you think that I am like you? I accuse you, I lay out the matter before your eyes. "Now understand this, you who forget God, lest I start ripping apart and there be no rescuer.

Those who offer praise as a sacrifice honor me; I will let him whose way is steadfast look upon the salvation of God." (Psalm 50, NAB)
