Avoiding Gossip

Shun the gossip of men as much as possible, for discussion of worldly affairs, even though sincere, is a great distraction inasmuch as we are quickly ensnared and captivated by vanity.

Many a time I wish that I had held my peace and had not associated with men. Why, indeed, do we converse and gossip among ourselves when we so seldom part without a troubled conscience? We do so because we seek comfort from one another's conversation and wish to ease the mind wearied by diverse thoughts. Hence, we talk and think quite fondly of things we like very much or of things we dislike intensely. But, sad to say, we often talk vainly and to no purpose; for this external pleasure effectively bars inward and divine consolation. Therefore we must watch and pray lest time pass idly.

When the right and opportune moment comes for speaking, say something that will edify.

Bad habits and indifference to spiritual progress do much to remove the guard from the tongue. Devout conversation on spiritual matters, on the contrary, is a great aid to spiritual progress, especially when persons of the same mind and spirit associate together in God.

(Imitation of Christ by Thomas A Kempis)

To Honor Our Veterans

We will be honoring our veterans on Veterans Day, Sunday, November 11, at St. Mary's Catholic Church. We would like to remember our family members, parishioners, and friends who have served in the military.

Please list the names you would like to have remembered on the forms below and return to the office or place in the offering basket.

These names will be placed on the altar for special prayers and recognition on November 11th.

In honor of:

For the wounded and afflicted, we pray for those who have fought, whose spirits and bodies are scarred by war.

May the peace you left us, the peace you gave us, be the peace that sustains, the peace that saves us. Lord Jesus, hear our prayer! Amen.

In Memory of:

We pray for those who have served our nation and have laid down their lives to protect and defend our freedom.

May the peace you left us, the peace you gave us, be the peace that sustains, the peace that saves us. Lord Jesus, hear our prayer! Amen.
