From Chaos to Peace

Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Beloved: Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder... - James 3:16

Chaos and disease are companions of disorder. These are not the gifts we seek, yet each of us has probably experienced their detrimental power in our lives. In your prayer today, take a long, honest look at your enemies of peace. What kind of chaos exists in your life that you would like to replace with the gifts that wisdom brings?

Wisdom comes from above, James says. It is peaceable and gentle--filled with mercy and all sorts of good fruits. What are the good fruits that wisdom brings?

Wars within and without do not come from wisdom. The conflicts among us and within us often come from making wrong choices. Perhaps if we would prayerfully listen to our conflicts, trying to discern what they need, we would know how to pray and what to ask for in our prayer.

O Prince of Peace, may all wars and conflicts cease!

Our study time is each Sunday after Mass and Wednesdays at 10:30 am. We are going to look at church history through a program called Epic by Steve Weidenkopf. Learn about the major people, places and events of the two thousand years of church history. Learn the true story of the crusades. Discover the characters of the Protestant Reformation. Understand the rationale of the medieval inquisitors and the Spanish Inquisition. Discover the various time of persecutions in the church. Learn how the Holy Spirit worked in the church throughout its history. There is a workbook called Epic A Journey Through Church History that you might want to take some notes. It can be obtained through Ascension Press.
