Where Are My Priorities?

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake... - Colossians 1:24

In today's first reading, Abraham quickly and wholeheartedly reaches out to the three strangers before they even ask for help. And his wife, Sarah, also moves into action. And the stranger says he will return in a year, and by then, Sarah will have a child--something for which the couple had been longing.

When I hear today's gospel story of Mary and Martha, I recall that, in my own life, I have had a tendency to become resentful when someone intrudes into my agenda--something of which I'm not proud. I need to restrain that tendency, while not letting myself become a doormat for the agendas of everyone else.

But I am further encouraged by today's second reading, where St. Paul has matured spiritually--to the point where he finds joy in the hardship and suffering he may have to endure in order to serve his community better for the love of Christ. That may be a long process for us, but it is truly worth the effort.
