Bishop Talley Cancels Holy Eucharist Celebration

“With compassionate regard for the health and welfare of the people of West Tennessee, and following the directives of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, I have made the reluctant decision to cancel the public celebration of the Holy Eucharist throughout the Catholic Diocese of Memphis until further notice,” says Bishop Talley regarding the coronavirus outbreak.

Help Support our Church and our Community

We encourage each of you to remain faithful with your giving by mail, using online banking, or dropping off at the office during office hours. Our church, our community and our nation needs your prayers and support at this time.

Our Baby Bottle Lenten Project is still underway. We will need your bottles returned no later than Palm Sunday. They can be dropped off at the office!
