LIFE OF FAITH—PART 5

Faith with deeds

And now begins our dialogue with God, something wonderful that will move us, will set our hearts on fire. Let us be Bartimeus. Christ who is God is speaking and asks: “What do you want me to do for you?” And the blind man replies, “Lord, that I may see” (Mark 10:51). How reasonable! And you, too. Hasn’t the same thing happened to you as to the blind man of Jericho? When meditating on this passage many years back and realizing that Jesus was expecting something of me, when I myself did not know what it was, I can never forget how I could only cry out in prayer: “Lord, what do you want? What do you ask from me?” I had a sense that he wanted me to take on something new. Bartimeus’ cry, “Lord, that I may see!” suddenly moved me to beg Christ again and again: “Lord, whatever you want, let it be done.”

Now, pray with me: “Teach me to do thy will, for thou art my God!” (Psalm 145:10). Our lips must express a real desire to correspond effectively to our Creator’s invitation, trying to follow his plans with un-flinching faith, with the knowledge that he can never err. If we thus love God’s will, we shall come to understand what the value of faith is, not only in how clearly we explain or define it but in our determination to defend it by our deeds; and we shall act accordingly.

But, let us go back to that scene outside Jericho. Now Christ is talking to you. He asks you: “What do you want from me?” “that I may see, Lord; that I may see.” And Jesus answers: “Go your way; your faith has made you well.” And immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way (Mark 10:52). To follow him on the way. You have understood what our Lord was asking of you and have decided to go along with him. You are trying to walk in his footsteps, to clothe yourself in Christ’s clothing, to be Christ himself. In that case, your faith, your belief in the light our Lord is giving you, must entail both work and sacrifice. Avoid wishful thinking or looking for new ways. Such is the faith he demands of us, and we must keep in step with it, working generously. At the same time, we must tear up and discard anything that gets in the way.

(St Josemaria)

In Loving Memory

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Nydia Hernandez on the loss of her beloved husband Raul.

A funeral mass will be held at 10:00 AM at St. Mary on Saturday, June 19. Reception will follow Mass.

Quote of the Week

"Give me an army saying the Rosary and I will conquer the world."

Pope Blessed Pius IX
