LIFE OF FAITH—PART 6

Faith and humility

And now it is St. Matthew who tells us about a most touching event. “A woman who had suffered from a hemorrhage for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment” (Matt. 9:20). How great her humility! “For she said to herself ‘if I only touch his garment, I shall be made well’” (Mt. 9:21). There are always sick people who, like Bartimeus, pray with great faith and have no qualms about confessing their faith at the tops of their voices. But notice that, among those whom Christ encounters, no two souls are alike. This woman too has great faith, but she does not yell, She comes close to Jesus without attracting any attention. It is enough just to touch his clothes, for she is certain she will be cured. She has hardly done so when our Lord turns around and looks at her. He knows the intimate feelings of her heart and has seen how sure she is: “Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well” (Matt. 9:22).

“She delicately touched the hem of the garment; she came up with faith, she believed, and she knew she had been cured. If we want to be saved, so should we touch the garment of Christ with faith.” 4 Do you see now how our faith must be? A humble faith. Who are you, and who am I to deserve to be called by Christ? Who are we, to be so close to him? Like that poor woman in the crowd, we have been offered a chance. And not just a chance to touch his clothes, to feel for a moment the edge, the fringe of his cloak. We have him himself. He gives himself to us wholly, with his body, with his blood, with his soul, and with his divinity. He is our daily food; we can talk to him intimately, as to a father or a loved one. And this is the truth; this is no fantasy.

Let us try to strengthen our humility. For only a truly humble faith will allow us to see the supernatural world. There is no alternative. There are only two ways of living on this Earth: either we live a supernatural life or an animal one. And you and I can only live the life of God, a supernatural life. “For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul?” (Matt. 16:26). What use to man is everything on Earth, all that our mind and desire can aspire to? What use is this, if it is all to end and sink out of sight if all the riches of the world are just theatrical scenery, if after all this there is still eternity forever, forever, forever?

This expression "forever" made St. Teresa of Avila great. One day, as a child, she set out with her brother Rodrigo through the Adaja gate in the city walls of Avila, to seek out the land of the Moors where they would have their heads cut off for Christ. As they walked along, she cheered up her slow brother saying: "Forever, forever, forever."

Men lie when they say "forever" about temporal things. The only true, totally true, "forever" is when we shall be face to face with God. You must live your life with a faith that will help you understand the unspeakable sweetness of Heaven as you look for the eternity which is truly "forever."

(St Josemaria)
