LIFE OF FAITH—PART 7

Contemplation for every day (Section 1)

Let us go back to the Gospels and consider for a while what St. Matthew tells us in Chapter 21. He describes how Jesus “returning to the city was hungry. And seeing a fig tree by the wayside he went to it” (Matt. 21:18). It makes us happy to see you, hungry Lord! To see you thirsty too beside the well of Sychar (cf. John 4:7). There we can see you, perfectus Deus, perfectus homo, truly God yet truly man, with flesh like our flesh. “He emptied himself, taking the form of a slave” (Phil. 2:7) so that we should never have any doubt that he understands us and loves us.

“He was hungry.” When we grow tired, in our work, in our studies, in our apostolate, when our horizon is darkened by lowering clouds, let us look at Christ, the good Jesus who is also tired, who is also hungry and thirsty. Lord, you make yourself clear! You show yourself to be just like us, in everything except sin so we can feel that with you we can conquer all our bad inclinations, overcome all our faults. For neither fatigue nor hunger matters, not thirst, nor sorrow. Christ also got tired, was hungry, was thirsty, cried. What matters is our struggle—a cheerful struggle, for our Lord is always at our side—to carry out the will of God our Father who is in Heaven (cf. John 4:34)

He goes to the fig tree. He comes also to you; he comes to me. Jesus is hungry and thirsty for souls. From the cross, he cried out, “I thirst!” (John 19:28). Thirsty for us, for our love, for our souls, and for all those souls which we must bring to him, by the way of the cross which is the way to immortality and heavenly glory.

He came up to the fig tree “and found nothing on it but only leaves” (Matt. 21:19). How disappointing! But does the same thing happen in our lives? Do we, sadly, lack faith and humility? Don’t we have sacrifices, any good works to offer him? Are we only Christian in appearances, with nothing real inside? This would be terrible, for Jesus then commanded: “May no fruit ever come from you again” (Matt. 21:19). This Gospel passage makes us feel sorry; yet at the same time, it encourages us to strengthen our faith, to live by faith, so that Christ may always receive some profit from us.

(St Josemaria)
