LIFE OF FAITH—PART 4

The Faith of Bartimeus (continued)

“And Jesus stopped and said, ‘Call him.’” And some of the better people in the crowd called the blind man saying: “take heart; rise. He is calling you” (MK 10:49). Here you have the Christian vocation. But God does not limit himself to calling us once. Our Lord is seeking us all the time. “Get up,” he says “rise from your sloth, your comfort, your petty selfishness, rise from your little insignificant problems.” Take off from where you are, earthbound, flat, and shapeless. Acquire height, weight, and volume and a supernatural outlook.

That man “throwing off his cloak sprang up and came to Jesus” (Mk 10:50). Throwing off his cloak! I do not know whether you have ever been on a battlefield. Many years ago I had occasion to visit a battlefield shortly after an engagement, and there strewn on the grounds were overcoats, water bottles, knapsacks stuffed with family souvenirs, letters, photographs of loved ones. And they belonged not to the defeated but to the winners. All their things had become burdensome as they charged forward to attack the enemy: like Bartimeus in his pursuit of Christ.

Never forget that to reach Christ there must be sacrifices. Throw away all that encumbers you—over-coat, knapsack, water bottle...And you must do the same in this battle for the glory of God, in our loving and peaceful struggle for the extension of Christ’s kingdom. In the service of the Church and the pope and souls, you must be ready to dispense with everything superfluous; to have no coat to shelter you from the bitter night cold; to keep no loving souvenirs of your family; to have no water to refresh you. This is the lesson taught us by faith and by love, for it is in this way that we must love Christ.

(St Josemaria)

QUOTE OF THE WEEK!

Like Mary, let us be full of zeal to go in haste to give Jesus to others. She was full of grace when, at the annunciation, she received Jesus. Like her, we too become full of grace every time we receive Holy Communion. It is the same Jesus whom she received and whom we receive at Mass. As soon as she received Him she went with haste to give Him to John. For us also, as soon as we receive Jesus in Holy Communion, let us go in haste to give Him to our neighbors, to our poor, to the sick, to the dying, to the lepers, to the unwanted, and the unloved. By this we make Jesus present in the world today.

(Blessed Mother Teresa of Calcutta)
