RESTING IN OUR LORD'S ARMS-PART 3

When we rest in Christ, we are able to find comfort and solace in time of grief and loss. When we face difficult circumstances like the death of a loved one or the loss of a job or relationship, it can be easy to feel alone and overwhelmed. But when we turn to God, we can find a source of comfort and strength that sustains us through the toughest of times.

In 2 Corinthians 1:3-4, it says, "blessed be the God and Fathers of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all consolation. He consoles us in all our tribulation, so that we too may be able console those who are in any kind of distress, through the exhortation by which we also are being exhorted by God."

When we rest in the Lord's arms, we can experience the compassion and comfort of God in a deep and profound way. We can trust that He is with us in our pain, and that He will help us to heal and move forward in our lives.

Even through losses in our lives, we are given the strength to live out our lives with a sense of purpose and mission—our Lord assures us that we are not left alone. When we know that we are loved and valued by God, we can live with confidence and courage, knowing that we have a unique role to play in the world. We can use our gifts and talents to serve others, and to make a positive difference in the world around us.

Ephesians 2:10, says, "For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works which God has prepared and in which we should walk."

When we rest in our Lord's arms, we can discover the good works that God has prepared for us to do, and we can live out our lives with purpose and passion, knowing that we are part of God's larger plan for the world.

(Father Charles)
