PRAYING FOR ONE ANOTHER

One of the most important things we can do as individuals on a daily basis is keep one another in prayer. In St. James' epistle, we are reminded that "the prayer of faith shall save the sick man: and the Lord shall raise him up: and if he be in sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess therefore your sins one to another: and pray one for another, that you may be saved. For the continual prayer of a just man availeth much." (James 5:15-16) These two verses shine a light on the power and grace that come from communal prayer. Our shared petitions are not in vain, but they help us draw closer to the Lord and develop a sense of unity among one another.

In this dark world in which we live, the act of keeping others in prayer becomes a testimony to our Catholic faith and our Christian love and compassion. When we lift up our brothers and sisters in prayer, we enter into a dialogue with God, seeking His guidance, mercy, and healing for all those in need.

The Apostle Paul, in his letter to the Philippians, encourages us with these words: "Be nothing solicitous; but in every thing, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." (Philippians 4:6-7) Through our intercessory prayers, we invite the peace of God to descend upon the lives of those we pray for, offering solace and strength in times of trouble. In extending our hearts to embrace the needs of others, we emulate the selfless love exemplified by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. As we intercede for our neighbors, we cultivate empathy, humility, and a deeper sense of connection within the body of Christ.

May each of us commit ourselves to the practice of fervent and sincere intercessory prayer. May we be a community that supports and uplifts one another, recognizing the genuine blessings that flow from our collective prayers.

(Rev. Fr. Charles Allen)
