ENTRUSTING OUR LIVES TO GOD

In the Gospel of Matthew, our Lord Jesus tells us, "Behold the birds of the air, for they neither sow, nor do they reap, nor gather into barns: and your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not you of much more value than they?" (Matthew 6:26) Jesus is reminding us of the tender care and providence of our heavenly Father. Just as He provides for the birds of the air, so too does He provide for each and every one of us. It is easy for us to become anxious about our daily needs, worrying about what tomorrow may bring. But Jesus instructs us to trust in the Father's loving hands, knowing that He will never forsake us.

Trusting in the hands of our Heavenly Father requires a surrender of our own will and a deepening of our faith. It means letting go of our fears and insecurities, and placing our lives entirely in His Hands. This does not mean that we become complacent, but rather that we make sure our will is in accordance with His own, knowing that His plans for us are good and perfect.

In times of trouble, it is natural for us to seek control over our circumstances. However, true peace and freedom come from surrendering control to the Lord and allowing Him to work in our lives according to His divine will. As the psalmist writes, "I trust in you, Lord...you are my God." (Psalm 31:15) When we entrust our lives to the Father, we can rest assured that He will guide us, protect us, and provide for us in ways beyond our comprehension. Even in the midst of trials and Tribulations, we can find solace in knowing that we are held firmly in His loving embrace.

(Rev. Fr. Charles Allen)
