MAINTAINING INTEGRITY

“You are the light of the world. A city seated on a mountain cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but upon a candlestick, that it may shine to all that are in the house.” (Matthew 5:14,15) Maintaining our integrity in this dark and evil world is essential for Christians. Our Lord’s words in the Gospel of St. Matthew remind us to be the light of the world, living in such a way that others may see Christ through us. Integrity means being honest and upright, regardless of the circumstances. Throughout the Bible we read how integrity guides us and serves as a witness to those around us, even in a morally confused society.

The well known example of Job illustrates the importance of steadfast integrity, as he remained faithful to God despite immense suffering. As Catholics, we find strength in the Holy Sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist and the Sacrament of Penance, which nourish our souls and help us resist the world’s temptations. Regular examination of conscience and walking according to Christ’s teachings are crucial, even when facing ridicule or persecution.

May each of us strive to be people of integrity, grounded in Christ’s truth, and become a great light in a sin-darkened world. May the Sacred Heart of Jesus, full of goodness and love, have mercy upon us, and may the Blessed Virgin Mary intercede for us and help us remain steadfast in our commitment of integrity.

(Rev. Fr. Charles)

Give us this day our daily bread:

With these words, we petition God to provide us with everything that we need (rather than want). "Our daily bread" is that which is essential for everyday life. That does not mean simply the food or other goods that keep our physical body alive, but that which nourishes our souls as well. For that reason, the Catholic Church has always seen "our daily bread" as a reference not only to everyday food but to the Bread of Life, the Eucharist—Christ's own Body, present to us in the Holy Eucharist.
